

RIGHT HERE, RIGHT NOW, you can make a difference

- + Rates of HIV infection continue to rise in Saskatoon, right here, right now.
- + In Saskatoon, the number of new diagnoses increased over 150% from 2007-2008
- + From April to September 2008, over 2,800 people accessed basic-needs services, like Soul Food and laundry, through the 601 Outreach Centre - that's an average of 25 people every day.
- + We are the strongest we work together. For information about other ways to get involved with AIDS Saskatoon, visit our website at www.aidssaskatoon.ca

AIDS Saskatoon is a community-based, harm reduction organization, dedicated to providing support, prevention, and education services for people infected and affected by HIV/AIDS. We are committed to a holistic, collaborative and inclusive approach in the work that we do with individuals, organizations and communities.

Your gift will make a difference

In the lives of people living with and affected by HIV/AIDS right here in Saskatoon

“Too often there’s no where to go if you don’t have money. This is someplace to feel secure and welcome. I know I can always come here, no matter where I am in life.”
